

Sunday 14th March 2021 - Door

On this first day of the week, we are invited to stand at the door of our house/home and look out. Today's Gospel reading contains the very well-known words of why Jesus became incarnate, human on earth, the reason for Jesus' death on the cross and what this means for us and all of humanity. From your front door what do you see that represents light in the world, evidence for good in the world? What can you see that reminds you of evil and darkness in the world? Take a moment to pray for the light and dark, good and evil you can see from your door's threshold.

<sup>14</sup> And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup> 'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

<sup>17</sup> 'Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. <sup>18</sup> Those who believe in him are not condemned; but those who do not believe are condemned already, because they have not believed in the name of the only Son of God. <sup>19</sup> And this is the judgement, that the light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than light because their deeds were evil. <sup>20</sup> For all who do evil hate the light and do not come to the light, so that their deeds may not be exposed. <sup>21</sup> But those who do what is true come to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that their deeds have been done in God.'

John 3:14-21

On Sunday evenings at 7pm Christians across Scotland are lighting candles, setting them on a windowsill, and praying for all affected by the pandemic.

You are invited to join in.
