

I believe in ... the Father, the Almighty

Isaiah 63:16

For you are our father, though Abraham does not know us
and Israel does not acknowledge us;
you, O Lord, are our father;
our Redeemer from of old is your name.

To Reflect

- Julian of Norwich says—'Also, as truly as God is our Father, so as truly God is our Mother.' Can you think of places the Bible where God is described in more motherly terms?

To Pray

Most loving Father, whose will it is for us to give thanks for all things, to fear nothing but the loss of you, and to cast all our care on you who care for us: Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which you have manifested to us in your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
